

Nomination for IPMS/USA Member of the Year

Instructions

Print a copy of this form and gather the signatures of at least 15 current IPMS/USA members. Then attach a brief write-up describing why the nominee should be considered for Member of the Year and submit the form and this information by no later than two months before the next national convention to the Recruitment/Retention Secretary either via snail-mail or email at:

IPMS/USA, PO Box 56023, St Petersburg, FL 33732-6023 or recruitment@ipmsusa.org .

The criteria used in selection are:

1. Chapter involvement. Examples: chapter officer, newsletter editor, web master, event or committee chairman, does presentations at chapter meetings, attendance and participation at chapter functions, etc. They volunteer and don't necessarily wait to be asked. They actively recruit new members or make sure any new member feels welcome in the group.
2. Regional/National Involvement. Examples: working at regional/national conventions, writing an article for the Journal, being part of the Review Corps or an IPMS/USA web site moderator, being a 25 or 50-year national member or a certified National Judge. Etc.
3. Community Involvement. They actively promote IPMS/USA in the community through participation in events designed to present IPMS/USA to the public, such as displays at libraries or museums, working with scouting and/or veteran's groups, doing instructional programs, etc.
4. A person cannot win the award more than once and a winner may not come from any given chapter more than once in five years. Current and former national Executive Board members are not eligible for this award.

We, the undersigned members in good standing of IPMS/USA, with our signatures do express our support
